

Criminal History Checks Policy and Procedure

Section 1 - Preamble

(1) The University is committed to providing a safe environment, to protect its staff members, students, visitors, assets and resources.

(2) A Criminal History Check is not a Working with Children Clearance notice or an Ochre Card, which is a separate requirement for University staff members who work or, have the potential to work with, children or in child-related fields.

Section 2 - Purpose

(3) The purpose of this policy is to specify requirements for criminal history checks for the University's staff.

Section 3 - Scope

(4) This policy applies to all University staff.

Section 4 - Policy Principles

(5) Current staff members may be required to undertake a Criminal History Check and obtain a National Police Clearance certificate in order to retain employment with the University.

(6) New staff members will be required to undertake a Criminal History Check and obtain a National Police Clearance certificate in order to commence employment with the University.

(7) A criminal record may preclude an applicant from employment with the University when the nature of the record prevents the applicant from meeting the inherent requirements of the position.

(8) Refusal to obtain a Criminal History Check may preclude a staff member from continuing their employment with the University.

Section 5 - Procedures

Requirement for a History Check

(9) To ensure the University is compliant with legislative and professional requirements:

- a. Senior Managers must ensure the requirement for a Criminal History Check is noted on the Request for Recruitment Action and Justification Form under Section 4 – Mandatory Employment Requirements prior to the recruitment and selection process for recognised positions;
- b. People and Culture must notify applicant/s for a recognised position that a Criminal History Check is required during the recruitment and selection process; and

- c. successful applicants who are recommended for employment with the University must initiate a Criminal History Check. An offer of employment will be conditional upon the production and verification of a current National Police Clearance Certificate.

Criminal History Check Application

(10) Successful applicants can apply online or complete the Northern Territory Police Criminal History Check – Application C form, and submit it together with the relevant identification and payment by mail or in person at the following locations:

- a. SAFE NT NT Police, PO Box 39764, Winnellie NT 0821
- b. SAFE NT Darwin Ground Floor, 77 Smith Street, Darwin NT 0800
