(29) International students applying to remove penalties from their enrolment may be required to provide evidence of compassionate and compelling circumstances.

Course intermission (break from study/leave of absence)

Higher Education students

(30) After completing one teaching period of study, a student may apply for an intermission (also known as a break from study or leave of absence). Students who are granted intermission will keep their place in the course, although not be actively enrolled in units.

(31) The decision to grant intermission will be made with consideration of course requirements including courses that are due to expire or are in teach-out, or if a student is nearing the end of the maximum allowable course duration.

(32) HE students may apply for only one period of intermission for a maximum period of 12 months.

- a. International student visa holders must submit documentation to demonstrate compassionate and compelling reasons to support their application. Student visa requirements will be included in the decision process when considering applications.

(33) In compassionate and compelling circumstances, the University will consider requests for a period of intermission beyond 12 months, or in the case of international student visa holders, an additional period of intermission, provided the total leave of absence does not exceed 24 months. Students will need to submit supporting evidence to support their request.

- b. Students who do not have their AASN application approved have the option to continue in their course or withdraw from their course.

(36) International student visa holders must submit documentation to demonstrate compassionate and compelling reasons to support their application for intermission and are restricted to only one period of intermission up to a period of 12 months. Student visa requirements will be included in the decision process when considering applications.

(42) The University may cancel a student's enrolment, whereby the student will no longer hold a place in the course, where:

- a. the student has no enrolment activity for at least 12 months and has not applied for an intermission; or
- b. the student has enrolled into one or more units of study, but failed to engage (i.e. receive an FNS or NS grade) in all their units for a period of 12 months or greater.

(43) International student visa holders will receive written notice of CDU's intention to report the decision to the Department of Home Affairs and will allow the student 20 working days to access CDU's internal complaints and appeals process, except where the student's health or wellbeing, or the wellbeing of others, is likely to be at risk.

(44) Students with lapsed or discontinued enrolments who wish to re-engage in their course must re-apply for admission to the University as detailed in the Admissions Policy.
